CASINO ROYALE IS TOO MUCH FOR ONE JAMES BOND!

Imagine a new James Bond!
Imagine Sir James Bond!
Imagine good Bonds and bad Bonds, cowboy Bonds, Indian Bonds, girl Bonds and a villainous Bond—enough Bonds to start Boy Scout Troop 007. It's all a portion of the fancy of Casino Royale.
Picture five dexterous directors devising diabolic delights. Conjure up visions of the nesting, natural 007 and a 007 au naturel. Indulge your reveries around super-sleuths and super-sleuth-slayers; closetsful of unravelled writers scheming ways to present more Bonds; a hundred-plus British beauties. It all adds up to a number—007!
Whimsy yourself with thoughts of songs written by Academy Award-honored Burt Bacharach and Hal David (Burt composed and conducted the entire score); Herb Alpert & the Tijuana Brass playing the title theme; Dusty Springfield singing The Look of Love. They are all here in this seductive sound track. They compound the interest.
"Casino Royale" is a superachievement—the biggest Bond-bargain yet! See why Bonds have more fun. Pleasure yourself with sights of bacchanalian Bonds setting new misbehavior patterns. Watch scenesful of stars break the Bond of the ordinary.
It's 007 times 007 times 007 ad infinitum. It is multiple Bond that totals up to "Casino Royale."
