Ladies and gentlemen, the biggest attraction in the whole world...THE BEATLES!

No single instance of Beatlemania around the globe has come close to the intensity and sheer magnitude that accompanied The Beatles' recent tour to Australia. Thanks to Australian music promoter Kenn Brodziak, who had simply liked the sound of their name, The Beatles visited Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide and Brisbane, playing 20 concerts to over 200,000 screaming fans in a whirlwind three weeks. Young teenage girls, boys who were breaking boundaries by growing their hair, even mothers and grandmothers, went to experience the excitement of the fab four. In half an hour, The Beatles played ten songs, from ALL MY LOVING and THIS BOY to SHE LOVES YOU and TWIST AND SHOUT.

And so it was, on a cool June evening, that 8,000 people packed the Festival Hall to witness The Beatles' final Melbourne concert. Specially recorded through modern microphones to reduce audience noise, the concert was first aired on the National Television Network earlier this month. Now, through special arrangement with GTV-9, Aztec Services Pty. Ltd. and Stadiums Ltd., you have the chance to own your very own copy of this historic occasion.
